TALK BY AUTHOR PATSY KEMP

Author Patsy Kemp will be at Coonamble Library on Tuesday 30 April at 5.30 p.m. Coonamble-born Patsy has written the first book ever about a droving family working its way from town to town across NSW and Queensland, including Coonamble!! When her father was short a workman he would send for his wife in Coonamble to grab some food and catch a taxi to go and help him, followed by Patsy and her six siblings when they were old enough. Come along and enjoy an evening with Patsy – the book is full of tales told with humour. Patsy has a great time talking about her life and answering questions.
