

1. BACKGROUND

Volunteers contribute significantly to the achievement of Coonamble Shire Council's strategic and service delivery outcomes in conjunction with Council employees to enhance the broad range of Council services, projects and programs.

Council also recognises that volunteering enhances social capital within the Coonamble community.

This policy provides a clear definition of the responsibilities of Council volunteers and employees, as well as outlining procedures and processes for effective management of volunteer programs within the organisation. It enables Council to fulfil its duty of care to volunteers, employees who work with volunteers and members of the community by services provided from Council volunteers.

2. PURPOSE

Coonamble Shire Council recognises volunteers are an integral part of the organisation and a valuable asset to the community. This policy provides the framework to successfully implement volunteers into Council and/ or activities.

3. POLICY OBJECTIVE

- Guide Council's vision for ongoing recruitment, volunteer management and recognition of volunteers.
- Assist in defining the role and responsibilities of volunteers.
- Encourage active community participation, involvement and social interaction through appropriate volunteering opportunities within the organisation.
- Facilitate engagement, supervision and training of volunteers.
- Provide a framework for the relationship between Council Staff and Volunteers.

6. POLICY

Coonamble Shire Council recognises the importance of volunteers within its community and acknowledges their contribution to improving the services provided and the quality of community life within the local council area. Volunteer Programs help to forge a bond between the Council and the local community by:

- Encouraging community participation, independence and interdependence.
- Providing additional access to resources and information.
- Increasing opportunities for social interaction, support and satisfaction.
- Adding value to services and programs.
- Extending the reach of Council services and events within the community.

6.1 EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Coonamble Shire Council aims to provide an environment of equal employment opportunity in the workplace. Council encourages people from diverse and cultural backgrounds, woman and people with all abilities to apply for all volunteering opportunities.

6.2 IMPLEMENTATION

Volunteers are recruited by the relevant Council department requiring the assistance of volunteers. All recruitment and selection of volunteers will be based on merit and interest of the volunteer without bias and inline with Council's Equal Employment Opportunities Policy.

Prospected volunteers will need to complete a volunteer application form, undertake necessary checks and induction prior to commencement. The People, Risk & Improvement department will assist with volunteer engagement within Council.

Coonamble Shire Council provides work experience and work readiness to students through the School to Work Program Policy.

6.3 RESPONSIBILITIES

Volunteers are not paid for their services, nor are they free labour. As with paid staff, in order for volunteers to effectively fulfil their duties and meet legislative requirements, they need to access information and appropriate resources – human, physical and financial. The resources need to be allocated in line with relevant Council policies and the National Standards for Volunteer Involvement.

6.3.1 Council's Responsibilities

Council will:

- Recognise the different roles, rights and responsibilities of volunteers.
- Create a climate of mutual respect.
- Provide a safe and effective work environment.
- Induct and train volunteers in relation to their activities.
- Ensure that volunteers are not used to permanently replace paid staff.
- Require volunteers to work under the direction and supervision of paid staff and/or appointed coordinators.
- Volunteers can expect a clear description of their duties, responsibilities and working environment which promotes productivity and satisfaction.
- Volunteer details will be kept on record.
- Regular reviews will provide both the Council staff and the volunteer with an opportunity to assess satisfaction and make adjustments.

6.3.2 Volunteer's Responsibilities

Volunteers have obligations to Council and are required to:

- Act honestly and with reasonable care and diligence.
- Demonstrate appropriate behaviour while volunteering including:
 - Not attempting to influence another person for advantage or favour.
 - Reporting potential conflicts of interest.

- Not soliciting, demanding, requesting or accepting any gift or benefit from another person.
 - Maintaining confidentiality and privacy.
- Acquaint themselves with the objectives and functions of Council and the services they are providing.
 - Participate in appropriate induction and training.
 - Operate under the direction and supervision of Council personnel to achieve the objectives required.
 - Notify of any potentially hazardous situation to themselves or a third party.
 - Report any injury/damage to themselves or a third party.
 - Make a realistic commitment in terms of involvement and reliability.
 - Be aware of and adhere to Council's policies and procedures, relevant legislation and relevant organisational policies, including Code of Conduct.
 - Ensure confidentiality of information relating to clients and respect the rights of clients.
 - Notify appropriate staff of accidents, unsafe working conditions, or inability to perform required tasks.
 - Undertake necessary training to maintain skills required.
 - Follow all instructions, consistent with the volunteer's job description, that may be given by the nominated supervisor.
 - Always portray Council in a positive and competent manner.

6.3.3 Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers usually assist Council in the following functions, depending on available resourcing:

- Administration.
- Library Services.
- Visitor Information Centre.
- Youth Services.
- Museum Operations.
- Recreation & Open Spaces (Cemetery).
- Short term community projects or events.

6.3.4 Volunteer Recognition

Council will recognise the importance of volunteers and the valuable contribution they make to our community at an appropriate annual function.

6.4 COUNCIL'S RIGHTS

Council has the right to:

- Negotiate a commitment from a volunteer.
- Expect a volunteer to undergo appropriate induction and training.
- Expect to be notified in advance if a volunteer is unable to undertake duties.
- Refuse a volunteer placement.
- Request that a volunteer undertakes a police check or medical predetermined by the chosen area of work.
- Expect a volunteer to embrace privacy and confidentiality obligations.

6.5 COUNCIL'S GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Council will ensure that volunteers:

- Do not take responsibility for duties assigned to paid staff.
- Have adequate skills and knowledge to undertake duties.
- Are provided with an induction and appropriate training.
- Receive appropriate support and supervision.
- Are registered with Council and insured whilst understanding approved work activities.
- Have a safe working environment, safe equipment and safe systems for volunteers.
- Have adequate resources to ensure the sustainability of the volunteer.

This policy shall be subject to a three (3) yearly review by Council during the development of the annual Operational Plan or at an earlier time as determined by Council.
